Dilworth Letter.

Aug. 26—J. M. Smith is the proud possessor of a big, nice, new cistern.

Miss Tena Holst and brother George were in Gonzales this week. The latter was also in Shiner.

A. A. Pogue returned home today from North Texas.

Up to the present our gin has turned out 85 bales of cotton.

Aug. 27.—Geo. Holst went to Gonzales yesterday to bring out a load of soda water for A. A. Sinderman.

Mrs. Sinderman is visiting on the prairie.

Ed. Krembling of Big Hill was in the city yesterday.

J. G. Crockett of Gonzales was here purchasing cotton last week.

Cleve Bowen has accepted a position with J. B. Connor on the Sap.

A called meeting of the W. O. W's will be held tonight to arrange for their barbecue.

Geo. Kridler and Will Williamson of Prairie were in the city this week.

W. E. Foster is holding down the press at Bartech's gin.

Don't forget the ball, Sept. 3rd. C. A., this means you also.

Aug. 28.—Church at Kokernot is the program for today.

Mrs. Mooney is visiting her brother's family at Prairie.

Mrs. Frank Bartech and family were in town yesterday.

S. J. Foster and H. F. Key of Tang were also here.

William F. Goodman of San Antonio was in the city, our guest, yesterday.

While en route home from Gonzales last week with a loaded wagon, Geo. Holst was compelled to leave it over night at Peach creek, owing to one horse going lame. Upon returning next morning to procure his wagon, the young man discovered he had been relieved of a sack of flour and nine bottles of soda water. No clues.

Have you ever noticed that good humor is contagious? Have you ever stopped worrying over the past long enough to find out that it is dead. Are you losing golden grains of Now, reaching after something in the future?

Mr. and Mrs. J. Connor and little ones are spending a few days with relatives near Gonzales.

We are indeed sorry to learn of Mrs. Paul Wenskey's serious illness.

The Woodmen have decided to give a picnic and barbecue some time during next month, the 21st inst. to be definite. The W. O. W's will furnish meat and coffee free, and everyone is expected to bring a well filled basket of other dainties. No location has as yet been decided upon.

H. B. Littlefield of Big Hill was in town today.
